I am directed to state that the Government enacted the Tamil Nadu Universities Laws (Amendment) Act 2002 by which they converted all the Government Colleges into the Constituent Colleges of the Universities to which they had been affiliated, in order to have better academic control over those colleges and to obtain funds from Central Government Agencies for improvement of infrastructural facilities in the said Colleges.
Further with a view to enlarge the academic activities, the Alagappa University, Karaikudi and Mother Teresa Women's University, Kodaikanal have been converted into affiliating Universities which had been, till then, Unitary type Universities. Further the Government have also established the Thiruvalluvar University at Vellore.

(105) 11/5/2002

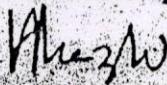

The Universities Laws (Amendment) Act 2002, Mother Teresa Women's University (Amendment) Act 2002, and Thiruvalluvar University Act, 2002 have come into force effect from 16.10.2002.

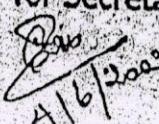

2. With a view to facilitate all the Universities to conduct smoothly, the academic administrative affairs of their respective constituent colleges, I am to furnish details of constituent colleges of every University in Annexure - I to this letter.

3. I am to inform that consequent on the enactment of Thiruvalluvar University (Amendment) Act, 2002 the jurisdiction map of Chennai University has been redrawn. Likewise consequent on the enactment of Tamil Nadu Universities Laws (Amendment) Act 2002 and Mother Teresa Women's University (Amendment) Act 2002, the jurisdiction map of Madurai Kamaraj University has been redrawn. I am to furnish the details of jurisdiction of the above Universities in Annexure - II.

4. However, I am to add that regarding transfer of properties and assets of the constituent colleges to the respective Universities, orders will be issued separately.

Yours faithfully,

for Secretary to Government.
