Our earlier order sanctioning DPED (2 units) was a mistake which inadvertently violated the Regulations. When we realized the mistake we reviewed our earlier decision and reduced the sanction from DPED (2 units) to DPED (1 unit). 2.3. Significantly, we have already decided to make such corrections in all earlier similar cases. That being so, it will not be possible for us to give DPED ( 2units) in this case as that would be violate of the Regulations. Their application is, therefore, rejected. 2.4. Please inform the applicant accordingly. 2.5. Ask our lawyer to apprise the court accordingly. 3.1. The R.D. was authorized on 28-29 Dec, 2017, through a general decision to identify all such cases in which erroneously DPED (2 units ) was approved and, to issue revised orders for reduction of DPED (2 units) to DPED (1 unit). R.D. is directed to carry out that direction without further delay. 3.2. Notwithstanding the general direction given, in the two specific cases-Gonna College of Physical Education (No.14747) and Vikas College of Physical Education (No.15025) brought up for consideration today, the earlier erroneous decision is reviewed and the sanction is reduced from DPED ( 2 units) to DPED (1 unit). Issue orders accordingly. 4. Inform the SCERTs and Acharya Nagarjuna University concerned.
