(d) Pass such other orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the present case.

There is no dispute that the first found of counselling has not commenced in the State of Haryana. The complaint of the petitioner is that State of Haryana. The complaint of the petitioner is that though the recognition was sought for D.El.Ed. course for 50 seats, it has been granted only for the year 2023-24 namely the next academic year. This is despite there being no fault on their part, according to the petitioners.

We heard learned counsel for the petitioners as also learned counsel for the NCTE-Respondent No. and learned counsel for the State of Haryana. Though the learned counsel for the NCTE would point out that this court may not in this case grant the benefit of orders which have been passed and relied upon by the petitioners on the basis that the NCTE is in the process of discontinuing the course in question as per the Minutes of the 55th General Body Meeting of NCTE held on 14th July, 2022 in virtual mode, it is not in dispute that such a decision has not yet been taken.

The learned counsel for the petitioners, in facts, would point out the several institutions are already in operation. In such circumstances, we of the view that the relief should not be denied to the petitioners.
