A perusal of the records would indicate that the final show-cause notice dated 11.06.2021 was issued on a different ground and the order of withdrawal of recognition dated 31.01.2022 was passed on other grounds, which were not specifically a part of the show-cause notice, which was given to the petitioner-institution. 15. This Court has also considered the fact that the order of the appellate authority dated 13.09.2022 was also passed on two issues, which did not form part of the show-cause notice. In any case, it is the contention of the petitioner- institution that the deficiencies reflected in the order, dated 13.09.2022 has also been cured inasmuch as a qualified Principal having Ph. D degree has been appointed after due advertisement and three teachers, one in the Core Subject and two for Pedagogic Content Knowledge were also appointed. 16. In that view of the matter, as already discussed here-in-above, the impugned order dated 13.09.2022 passed by the appellate authority and the orders dated 26.08.2019 and 31.01.2022 issued by the ERC are set aside and quashed, however, giving liberty to the respondents to issue specific show-cause notice on any
