

MESSAGE

The National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) family suggests that the managements of Teacher Education Institutes proactively engage with their staff, faculty and students to spread the message of safety and precaution in the face of threat from COVID-19.

We look up to the Institutions to provide leadership so that we can fight this problem as one big family by being vigilant and well informed.

The best resource for news and updates is:

<https://mohfw.gov.in>