- (a) The Teacher Education center all along from the inception has not made serious efforts to comply with NCTE Regulations, Norms & Standards notified from time to time.
- (b) Initially Teacher Education center was established in Government Schools and has not made efforts to construct own building. As per NCTE Regulations, an institution should possess its own land and building exclusive to the B.Ed. college. Till date these Teacher Education Centers have not constructed their own building for B.Ed. course which is a clear violation of NCTE Act and its Regulations.
- (c) *Major changes were made in the NCTE Regulations 2014 wherein one-year B.Ed. course was converted into Two years B.Ed. course. All B.Ed. colleges in the entire country has submitted affidavit to NCTE ensuring to comply with Regulations 2014 and obtained Revised Provisional Regulation order, whereas Calicut University Teacher Education Centers have not cared to submit the Affidavit to comply with NCTE Regulations 2014 till date. - (d) Whenever SRC NCTE has pointed out deficiencies suggesting to improving the facilities, these University Centers have not made serious efforts and after withdrawal of Recognition they always rely upon filing Court cases and never tried to improve facilities. Thus, these Teacher Education Centers all along imparting sub-standard Teacher Education to the students.
- (e) Staff requirements as stipulated in Norms & Standards are not maintained. Staff is an important and integral part of quality Teacher Education, whereas these Centers are running with minimal staff thereby compromising the quality of B.Ed. programme.
- (f) Since these Teacher Education Centers have neither submitted Affidavit nor obtained Revised Provisional Recognition order from SRC NCTE in the year 2014-2015. Hence, these centers are not an existing institution and they deemed to have lost their existence from the year 2014 itself for not complying to Revised Regulations 2014. These Teacher Education Centers are offering B.Ed. programme illegally from the year 2014 as per the law of the Land.
- (g) Faculty and facilities in these Teacher Education Centers are temporary in nature all along from the establishment of the B.Ed. course. Till date permanent Faculty as per NCTE norms are not appointed by these Centers.
