ORDER

WHEREAS the appeal of Sant Jogendra Teachers Training College, Fatehpurakalan, Kotputli, Rajasthan dated 12/02/2019 is against the Minutes of 268th Meeting of NRC held from 19 to 21 April, 2017 (Part 3) of the Northern Regional Committee deciding to refuse grant of recognition for conducting for B.A. B.Ed./B.Sc. B.Ed. Course on the grounds that "the reply of SCN issued by NRC to the institution has not been received within stipulated time."

AND WHEREAS Sh. Umesh Kumar Yadav, Secretary, Sant Jogendra Teachers Training College, Fatehpurakalan, Kotputli, Rajasthan presented the case of the appellant institution on 31/01/2020. In the appeal and during personal presentation it was submitted that "Appellant institution had filed a S.B. Civil Writ No. 651 of 2019 in the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature for Rajasthan Bench at Jodhpur and the Hon'ble Court vide order dated 19/01/2019 dismissed the petition with liberty to the petitioner to prefer an appeal against the impugned order."

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee noted that order dated 19/01/2019 made by Hon'ble High Court lays down that appellant is required to prefer appeal within 2 weeks which shall be considered by Appellate Authority on merits. In the instant case, online appeal was preferred on 12/02/2019 and hard copy of appeal was received on 21/11/2019. Appellant, therefore, is observed to have not preferred the appeal within 2 weeks of the Court order dated 19/01/2019.

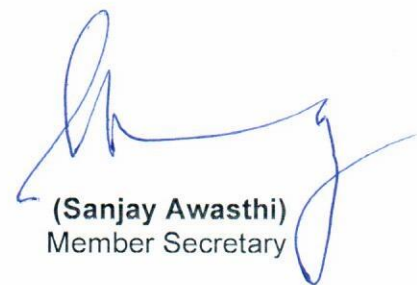

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee, on perusal of the regulatory file observed that there is no refusal order issued as required under Section 14 or Section 15 of the NCTE Act and as such there can be no time limit prescribed for making a written representation against the impugned decision.

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee noted that appellant institution in its letter dated 18/02/2019 and 04/10/2019 addressed to Regional Director, NRC had made efforts to submit clarifications on the points of deficiency raised in the Show Cause Notice (SCN) dated 02/03/2017. Though the clarifications submitted by appellant are found to be deficient and lacking on certain points, NRC ought to have issued a formal order of refusal under Section 14 of the NCTE Act after considering the submissions made by appellant.

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee, considering the submissions made by appellant decided to remand back the case to Western Regional Committee to revisit the matter. Documents available on record should be kept in view.

AND WHEREAS after perusal of the Memoranda of Appeal, affidavit, documents on record and oral arguments advanced during the hearing, Appeal Committee concluded to remand back the case to Western Regional Committee to revisit the matter. Documents available on record should be kept in view.

AND WHEREAS Sh. Nirbhaya Singh, Director, R.P.S. Institute for Training of Trainers, Chandaus, Gabhana, Aligarh, Uttar Pradesh presented the case of the appellatant institution on 31/01/2020. Till 29.03.2017 Grampanchayat, Chandaus, Aligarh had the authority to approve the building plan of buildings proposed to be constructed in its territory but on 30.03.2017 the said authority has been transferred to the Khetra Panchayat, Chandaus, as per it's resolution dated 30.03.2017. In the year 2012 the building plan of the concerned building was approved by the Grampanchayat, Chandaus, Aligarh as per its approval letter as enclosed. How the said building plan has been re-approved by Khetrapanchayat, Chandaus, Aligarh (U.P.) as per its letter dated 05.11.2019 as the same is enclosed herewith as enclosure no.. AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee noted that appellant institution had not only failed to prefer appeal within stipulated period of 60 days, it had delayed preferring appeal for more than 5 years and 6 months over and above the prescribed time limit. The reason given by appellant for this long and inordinate delay is 'Mother's illness' which is not convincing. Appeal Committee further noticed that application seeking recognition was made by appellant institution on 31/12/2012 under the NCTE Regulations of 2009 and a deficiency letter was issued to appellant institution on 12/07/2013 followed by a Show Cause Notice (SCN) dated 21/11/2013. Appellant institution had not replied to these communications and now NCTE Regulations, 2009 have been replaced by a new set of NCTE Regulations, 2014. Appeal Committee, therefore, decided that the delay of more than 5 years and 6 months in preferring appeal is not condonable. Appeal dated 08/11/2019 made by appellant institution, is therefore, not admitted.

AND WHEREAS after perusal of the memorandum of appeal, affidavit, documents available on records and considering the oral arguments advanced during the hearing, the Committee concluded not to condone the delay in submission of the appeal. Hence the appeal is not admitted.

ORDER

WHEREAS the appeal of Raghuram Mahavidhyalaya, Kheragarh, Kagarol, Uttar Pradesh dated 09/01/2019 is against the Order No. NRC/NCTE/NRCAPP-15349/289th/2018/197989-94 dated 23.10.2018 of the Northern Regional Committee, refusing recognition for conducting for M.Ed. Course on the grounds that "the institution has not submitted the reply of SCN dt. 09.02.2018. Hence, the Committee decided that the application is rejected and recognition/permission is refused u/s 14/15 (3)(b) of the NCTE Act, 1993. FDRs, if any, be returned to the institution."

AND WHEREAS Sh. Indrapal Singh, Secretary, Raghuram Mahavidhyalaya, Kheragarh, Kagarol, Uttar Pradesh presented the case of the appellant institution on 31/01/2020. In the appeal and during personal presentation it was submitted that "The appellant had applied to the Regional committee under section 14/15 of the National Council for Teacher Education Act 1993 and NCTE Regulation 2014 for grant of recognition to M.Ed. course. 2. The Regional Committee NRC NCTE refused the grant Recognition in its 289th meeting held on from 8th to 9th October 2013 and displayed the decision on its website. The Regional Committee erred in deciding the matter as neither any show cause notice dated 09.02.2018 as mentioned in the impugned order dated 23/10/2018 was received to applicant institution nor any information either through online or information in any manner or on email ID was sent by Regional Director to Applicant institution. As such, without any show cause notice to applicant, the order issued refusing application of the applicant for permission recognition, is all together arbitrary illegal and against the rule. Once the show cause notice as mentioned in the impugned order itself has not been received to applicant through any manner either email or through message or through net or online or by written so there was no occasion to give reply the show cause notice. As such, the observation made in impugned order that the reply has not been submitted against the show cause notice issued dated 09/02/2018, is illegal and arbitrary."

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee noted that a Letter of Intent (L.O.I) dated 30/04/2017 was issued to appellant institution seeking compliance on various points within a period of 2 months. Appellant institution did not submit any reply to the L.O.I. which resulted in issue of a Show Cause Notice (SCN) dated 09/02/2018 and appellant was required to submit its written representation within 30 days. Appellant institution again failed to submit its reply to S.C.N. which finally resulted in issue of impugned refusal order dated 23/10/2018. Last para of the impugned order laid down that in case appellant institution is not satisfied with the order, it may prefer appeal under Section 18 of the NCTE Act within a period of 60 days.

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee noted that appellant had failed to respond to the L.O.I. dated 30/04/2017, S.C.N. dated 09/02/2018. Even on the date of appeal hearing i.e. 31/01/2020 appellant could not show any evidence of having complied to the terms and conditions required to be complied as per L.O.I. dated 30/04/2017. Appellant had also not sought any extension of time for complying to the requirements mentioned in the L.O.I. Appeal Committee, therefore, does not find any merit in the submissions made by appellant and decided to confirm the impugned refusal order dated 23/10/2018 issued by NRC.

AND WHEREAS after perusal of the Memoranda of Appeal, affidavit, documents on record and oral arguments advanced during the hearing, Appeal Committee concluded to confirm the impugned refusal order dated 23/10/2018 issued by NRC.

NOW THEREFORE, the Council hereby confirms the Order appealed against.

- (iii) There is no provision in NCTE Act and Appeal Rules to reconsider an appeal matter which is already decided.

ORDER

WHEREAS the appeal of Taxshila B.Ed. College (Shree Nilkanth Education & Social Welfare Trust), Bayad, Sabar Kantha, Himmatnagar, Bayad, Gujarat dated 01/07/2019 is against the Order No. WRC/APW00859/323192/165th/2012/93385, 86, 87, 89, 91, 92 dated 26.07.2012 of the Western Regional Committee, withdrawing recognition for conducting for B.Ed. Course on the grounds that "no reply has been received from the institution till date and it did not shift to own premises even expiry of three period."

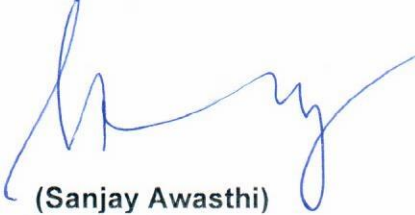

AND WHEREAS Sh. Ramesh V. Prajapati, Trustee, Taxshila B.Ed. College (Shree Nilkanth Education & Social Welfare Trust), Bayad, Sabar Kantha, Himmatnagar, Bayad, Gujarat presented the case of the appellant institution on 31/01/2020. In the appeal and during personal presentation it was submitted that "NCTE office didn't inform to the college that's a reason we are unable to reply the withdrawal notice."

AND WHEREAS Appeal Committee noted that impugned order of withdrawal dated 26/07/2012 was issued on the ground that appellant institution did not reply to the Show Cause Notice (SCN) dated 23/01/2012. The S.C.N. was on grounds of non shifting of premises from rental to own within 3 years. The impugned order of withdrawal dated 26/07/2012 also mentioned that if the appellant institution is not satisfied with the order, it may prefer appeal within 60 days.

AND WHEREAS from the regulatory file it is observed that appellant did not prefer any appeal till July, 2019 and as such the present appeal is delayed by more than 6 years and 9 months. It is further observed from the regulatory file that appellant by its letter dated 25/10/2018 submitted a request to WRC to restart the programme i.e. B.Ed. course. It is, therefore, evident that course had remained discontinued for several years and the appeal preferred is also delayed for a very long period. In between these years NCTE Regulations, 2014 had also come into force changing the Norms and Standards for conducting B.Ed. course. For seeking recognition, appellant institution may therefore, apply afresh as and when NCTE issues notification inviting fresh applications. The present appeal made by appellant is devoid of any merit and also delayed. Appeal Committee concluded not to admit the appeal.

AND WHEREAS after perusal of the memorandum of appeal, affidavit, documents available on records and considering the oral arguments advanced during the hearing, the Committee concluded not to admit the appeal. Hence the appeal is not admitted.
